

The map displays the Fenouillet river valley, characterized by its winding course and surrounding hilly terrain. Key locations include Prugnanes to the northeast, Larboussa to the east, and el Singla further east. The Fenouillet river is shown in blue, with several tributaries like the Ravin de Marseille and the Ravin du Bouix. A red line labeled '1' is drawn across the map, likely indicating a specific area of interest or a boundary. The map also shows various elevation points and contour lines, providing a detailed topographic view of the region.
